Annual Exhibition 1960

Contemporary Sculpture and Drawings

December 7, 1960 - January 22, 1961

Whitney Museum of American Art

22 West 54th Street, New York

Foreword

Since 1932 the Whitney Museum has held a series of annual and biennial exhibitions surveying the field of contemporary American art. In the present exhibition, like its predecessors, the artists participate by invitation instead of submitting to a jury, and the works are selected by members of the Museum's staff. By a tradition which goes back to Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney's first activities in American art, no prizes are awarded in this exhibition.

This year's annual exhibition consists entirely of sculpture and drawings. Next year's exhibition will be devoted to paintings.

The exhibition is made possible by the cooperation of art galleries, museums, private collectors and artists who have generously made loans to the exhibition and to whom we wish to make grateful acknowledgement.

A generous donation from the Friends of the Whitney Museum has made possible this more comprehensive catalogue with its larger format and over twice the number of illustrations provided in previous years.
